My dear Papa
 I have many thanks to return you for your kind letter & invitation to inform you that Ann's situation brood the good yesterday about 12 o'clock nothing could be better arranged for more comfortable she went up in the chair & as I felt her & for ⁱⁿ ^{spence} ^{even} let the chair go Ann's was not so much alarmed
 as she would have been otherwise. She lay on the back all the time
 very composed & quiet
 but not at all sick though we had a good deal of sea at times here

and on being in her return time she received the Integon & really after her recovery appeared to be almost cheerful. The action on the side has begun to discharge which pleased Dr. Paine very much but might as be original depends upon the action acting properly but in Amelia does not find much of any relief from the discharge yet as the
the same - She might did not appear worse
to me in fact the good she certainly might have than she did when the first came & I received some funds great comfort we staying quiet all day & not speaking. I do not understand to give away my decided opinion

as yet we first yesterday was quite a day of trial Therefore we can not judge. After lunch we are to go in the Boat & take a Run that we may
The Prince arrived Saturday night in consequence of his journey having been at London. He came much later than
kind & desires not to put us out of our way
- only wishes to be directed to be what is right & best by every body - I do not know how they be intended & trying to only want in words, but George Sir & Paul de Pite & myself & for some business might be with me under Gushkin & Beyerly go with us - I. The be small amount of Sir & Paul & the ship's company that was very small as expected he could not stand near having been on board a short time but not even in a Boat his company & numbers amounted all not a little I was quite well to my grand joy & able to assist my Property when ever being had interest —

Your Dutiful & affe

Moore

Amber the last letter 4 & 5 lines above —
 which I think a great thing considering all
 the troubles I have just been into last night & the night
 before
