My dear Mr Adams
Many thanks for your kind letter received yesterday by which I rejoice to find the Mr Adams is no more
He told yesterday at two o'clock when the heavy mist to state & sleep of hours & a half. We have been perfectly serene the short time, but thank God the sleep has been wonderful in number &

That Baillie called upon me to day to express his happiness & joy at the good turn things had taken within the last 24 hours — God in heaven Grant me many more
 for more such good lucks as this last has been for better than it has been by far the worst one had had
 in this illness —
 But all the they are

agree
 had
 end
 of the
 me
 no
 and
 to
 me
 two
 up
 for
 the

agree that his strength has suffered very little considering the violence of the fever - I am very much better in all respects took a fine walk to Longwood
today which enjoyed
much - Our Augustin Judge is quite shut up & Phipps & Mansfield go to some extent
they both look well
I must say

God bless you & please come our good friends
