My dear Mrs Holmes -
 It is ages and ages since I have had the pleasure of receiving one line from you I hope it is not all long that has caused your silence since my last to you I have been living under a state of great anxiety concerning your dear dear dear dear my all indeed & have never been out of bed but for the last few weeks but to have been bed bound It began on the 21st of Polina fever which has gone on ever since & both Welford & Phillips say of it and a decided Polina dear dear and go off by degrees & stand it well, but as it is not go off - In the ^{mean} time her ^{strength} is really ^{tried} & when one reflects what ^{her} ^{health} she has ^{had} & how much ^{subdued} she has ^{been} is ^{impossible} not to ^{be} ^{greatly} ^{astonished} at the ^{length} of this ^{illness} - And in ^{many} things she ^{puts} ^{me} ⁱⁿ ^{astonishingly} ⁱⁿ ^{mind} of ^{her} ^{condition} of ^{her} ^{mind} ^{is} ^{quite} ^{such} - and I believe ^{with} ^{the} & ^{public} ^{from} ^{her} ^{Board} & stomach ^{are} ^{much} ⁱⁿ

The same state has in in which of course fighting me so however I have Thus is a real source to be all in as it is hardly possible to keep the sick room quiet enough & I have allowed as many departures to be made in the in regard to the several parts as when all things be kept I may see you will understand what I mean - My feet is much lame I can move with about the same & go out in the carriage any day when the weather will permit of it - The boys have been dreadful lately will be soon impossible to get out the doctor keeps quiet - I have had only one letter from Dilly since he left England dated the 13 of Dec - but after he landed
