

Feb. 22. 1812

My dear Generalissimo Augustus is truly very well & his not succeeded but so very glad you take it as she heard it since I wrote last the poor has remained in a very good state, but the second part in the same part of the my some degree of irritation appeared yesterday & the day before, but upon the whole the last time makes the King has been in a cold unimpaired state asking for nothing in his own concerning his wife at last being taken to by what disputing a great deal in the course of the day & very little at night - This great state of things is certainly far better than all the evil we had before, but as the great gains nothing and all the evils remains I we have nothing for it but to be thankful he is happy with us commonly & we are improving state after all that has passed all the changes that have been obliged to take place to put this Establishment upon a new place I hardly think we should ever to put the particular I know it would cause some should be ever to see a state to be told it - though we feel how ever as much

some
 I
 the
 in
 for
 the
 the
 all
 you
 you
 the
 say
 we

Feb. 22. 1812

considered as possible yet I am sure he never will take it without feeling it deeply. It is a comfort that my Mother writes so well I hope you take her letters to the joy of her that appeared in the papers - not but persons - I never can describe to you what but Sunday was to us all thank God that day was and the new establishment was begun with the help than I expected & certainly all the arrangements have gone & my paper was Gully has been all since she left us which I fully expected for I never can my Henry like her destiny at leaving us & she has entered into all our trials that I was sure she would be ill as soon as she got home but bless you I have always proposed to thank you for your kind advice not to go & dear traps keeping in apart people & the Japan you I intend to be careful & my heart beats

for the rest of my life

Yours
Mary

Love to Ann

Feb. 22

7101