My dear Mr. Colman — A thousand thanks for your kind & good kind letter which I hasten to answer before all my Brothers arrive — I am quite sensible to find you have been so ill but hope in God as you are beginning to gain strength these attacks of fever is going off I guess you should feel you are not equal to what you used to do — trouble & anxiety more or less in the long run affects the health as well as the spirits — I think William perfectly right in being prevented at the Drawing room & on the

sincerely I believe in me I really think it is proper your business should say her duty to her. I am sure the I never can think any of your business can ever be done away from but I am of course can look upon your business concerning to the business room as pushing I am delighted to see it to be prevented the first business room because I am to be at that back for the last time always has been in an colour of gold state, to say the is again more improved but the general health is good & the business be has taken on Pollo agrees the system has suffered very much with the late months constant rain which hangs on from the Bay & Borkie side it is never — I have not time for leave to say Yours
