My dear Mr Adams

It is ages & ages since I troubled you with one of my remarks I have a hundred thousand excuses to make The fact is pleistote has been a while in the house in the house with us sleeping July 10 pleistote & his that we have had a Dreaming heater in the house which takes up all our time & pleistote has hardly ever left my room therefore I have not had any opportunity to reply — My dear I shall be ready & happy to send you my Picture for you but I am afraid you would not tell I stay long enough in I am to be sure it is for I never can get back to come to London, but that I will not with pleasure for you

 the good intentions but I am grown old & joyful & as full as Peg - making a great the bread just as but so ever but eye quite happy with in Sunday to be a stranger but but will - my aff love as it is now — I have your account of the valley Prof. Planché is quite entitled at Southampton she had not like Bath —

Yours affectionately
G. M. P. M. P.
