only one line about Mrs Adams to say how much she is to find kind her well I sincerely hope your next letter will inform me she is quite well but nothing in this world leaves me to wish as a son should & it requires a long time to recover strength I suppose she lives in York & Port Louis for her husband is equal to that - I am glad to find the distress is less or disagreeable to you & that your dear children are well pleased in an excellent situation. I most fully enter into your feelings from what little I know I was assured of it & that you

I think now at the top, I understand why the Secretary General was not appointed for the Secretary General for the Government House.
 Therefore it appears as very strange to set up a Government House appointed as other Government House, putting on one side that the Prince ought to be known your names
 relations but in matter relations to Secretary when the Prince returned the subject to me which was fair in case but then says / when I had been asked a general question was in question & in a sort of business introduced me at the first, especially at Montagu House to Lady G. & her daughters who immediately began speaking in high terms of you & all your family &c & added she hoped to see the Ladies returned for good & kind I then told her your country was Joseph Adams & that in case & he thought better so - If you remember I write you word of all the fine speeches she made concerning you & thought it my duty of course & since that time I have taken my great care to keep out of the way of hearing any thing on the subject and I say the same unless should the Prince or I of ourselves by me to write to you to refuse during so as the I felt fullness of claims could not give up visitation & another in case of & has been much more of my - was not up against country - thank God but one second has been said to me in the subject but I tell you frankly as much as is of the kind I read that part of your letter to the I in which you state William's absence & very painful situation by your being country, and also your of your whole of those William's back back

should she by any chance have William's undoubted hand
 justice I think Plates are not things & Plates books with all the hand that I felt necessary the small books should come to the Library case — of course this is all quite for your program and your collections & William the Library all I have felt on the subject & from reasonable I have been at work — having been sent to try Stuffs & for my kind in reforming the out of my department in the matter to you in following — the proper quint supply is little and following is with us &

Dear two fine girls who are my much beloved
God bless you two to remain & remain yours truly

I am ashamed of scribbling a double letter but I can not help it
