My dear Mr Adams - I am quite ashamed at my long silence & for not having thanked you yet for the good service I received some days ago - but we have lived in the single road to I am for the last fortnight in consequence extra hours of lady de Clifford having resigned, and the difficulties are great in trying to make the new arrangement.
The Prince has therefore begged the Queen to assist because that has caused much anxiety & as yet nothing is settled in thought two days ago the Dowry of lady de Clifford accepted, but she refused & since that has accepted again so what will come of all this goodness It is difficult to give an

I have been very much surprised to find that you had not yet received the money which I had sent you by Mr. [unclear] I am very sorry to hear that you are still in the hospital and hope you will soon be able to return home. I am very anxious to see you and to hear how you are getting on. I am your affectionate friend and father
