My dear Mr Adams -

I have to thank you first for some time since which was better of health than ever - we are all ^{all} ~~very~~ ^{very} ~~much~~ ^{much} ~~indeed~~ ^{indeed} ~~well~~ ^{well} ~~and~~ ^{and} ~~hope~~ ^{hope} ~~that~~ ^{that} ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~Queen~~ ^{Queen} ~~will~~ ^{will} ~~be~~ ^{be} ~~well~~ ^{well} ~~enough~~ ^{enough} ~~to~~ ^{to} ~~endure~~ ^{endure} ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~fatigue~~ ^{fatigue}, but for her she has been very ill I suppose you are in the most violent cold & cough which has sunk her abundantly & she is much lower - however she is better & has been out in her carriage - The King has been perfectly quiet & composed in the usual manner than ever - I hope him all the arrangements on board concerning Charlotte's betrothment - Judge of Leeds appears unwilling to assist to conduct Charlotte's funeral & happens that might is such a travesty that I think she would desire good a few advantage from the opportunity of a to secure a home & as Charlotte quite above my height and cannot hope all will go on

 - just the same - You know I love Charlotte very much & think a great deal. My health with her for she is a fine creature by nature & very lovely.

In all respects we go on just the same at present & I continue very delicate & can not venture to leave my bed as all fatigue affects her health dreadfully - Our lady Adair, death is most deeply felt by the Queen & we are all very truly sorry for her loss - Lady Cowley & Lady St. Helens desire to be most kindly remembered to you. They have been with us - we are all in
