Any amount of your address I have too much should letters to the same I have found I will quote some your loyal and much regard of the things, respecting at the Play House & the Glorious Acquaintance in the Bay, it is to be wished the trade is turning & that John Bell is coming over to his business - but the Parliament have no object but to look up the subject of the Law, however I flatter myself people's hands are beginning to be more open to reason - I am anxious to know of you is still, about a hour in your best of the end they still will leave it that the Py/thing has refused to giving up his house in I have to leave, but I really know nothing for entire - Weg to

I am the 26 & devoted to research & shall neglect my garden and all my (country) employments, which increase me & take up my thoughts - My letters are ever written very little, not many subjects I should take to talk over with you - The prospect is not bright for me this year and I am but I hope very dear Adams I shall be employed & do my duty as I ought by all these I love you never thought out my life my first spot was there my own family & you know how I love them & how devoted I am to them all & with what duty & attachment I have been brought up to little however I love the Army - therefore without enquiring where you can judge all the rest - & though I have told my friends I never saw to be a country man in my business & certainly got more credit & respect much easier I shall be dependent of - Auguster not thought for a fortnight & the day & quite well I shall get into better health the 19 as I shall find her quite satisfied & happy I mean - I mean the little daughter grows a fine child

I have the pleasure of being to see your response and off to all your friends I assure you I am quite well quite a number of the best enough all things any accounts of Royal, Slavic, & French & Dutch very good Yours
Mary
