

Apr. 6. 1813

My dear Mr Adams —

It is ages & ages since I have scanned you a line we may after one other has alone covered my volume —
The poor old Bannock
death was so unexpected
that it really affected us much & the King turned out sundries recalled so many sadful things to our remembrance that we have been living in a sort of state of grief. The King has been some weeks of late &
had one of those bad colds

which alarmed us very much at first but the letters appear - the I
 we got quite well - I hope I am happy to say it is all the more she was so close up - I had a letter from you with about I was pleased to say I must look forward to seeing you in the fall as best to go as soon as we can go with safety to the
 & the D of Cumberland is about to go as a Volunteer to the Russian Army

I am
 your
 love
 your
 dear
 friend
 I am
 your
 dear
 friend
 your
 dear
 friend

Apr. 6. 1813

I should hope that you will soon be soon commencing up to down at least if I recollect April year the month you proposed doing so - yesterday winter returned & today
 summer is come back I never in my life saw such changes in the weather my eye has to be used & when we ever go to visit the 6

Wm
 Wm

Windsor 10/13
April 6

Mrs. Adams

Boston

Dear Madam

Yours of the 2nd inst. is received I am glad to hear of your well being & hope you will continue to be so

