

May 18. 1812

My dear Mr Adams

By only told me yesterday that Miss called at the Queen's House on Monday morning to enquire after us and that Mrs Adams was ill in bed

I hope this is not true but I shall not feel easy till I hear from you & trust it is nothing of consequence as you looked quite well indeedly when I saw you I hope Mrs Adams is better & the children likewise what a hearty collection is given & what soundness the bees & as for the little girl I never saw such a love - Augusta Sampson was the

Dear Mother & the Queen is quite anxious that she should be named in the 4 of June as being and let her eyes with a long fourth it is with Queen in her tent on the
and a Queen as has intended - In fact the
a great supply to the
to the rest of us all the letter for more jewelry to Queen - love to the

Yours truly
Mary
May the 10, 1813