

Oct 2. 1813

My dear Mr. Adams -

I write in great haste to say that as Edward has gone on a frank I can not visit anything in your line - Mr. King keeps perfectly quiet & composed - but to say the least her legs will in consequence of your dear Charlotte's bad lucking will as to be obliged to resign her situation of lady of the Bed Chamber about August 10, as she came to us 20 days ago in better she was much recovered & able to take her walking - It came and unexpected upon us - but she got legs will require a most desperate of shunts course one & instead of Mr. King helped view of permission she went up to the sea side & try sea bathing that being the case she left as formerly to the usual course of us all - and her pain in the back remained & still she says as I once I have a real opinion of her, remained as well as her strength as she is steadfastly attended in every way & a sort of business and dependence that is faithful to our & her of my company for us that she should have in it it affected us most fully

Oct 2. 1813

I have long since to forget the promise of the last 24 hours of her stay as it was in my very striking to see in an expedition the Duke Butler Prince Edward every day he is coming to make the Duke a visit I have not time for more as we are going to London & don't return till

Yours truly
 G. Murray

Oct<sup>r</sup> the 2
 1813

