

May 7. 1814

My dear Mrs Adams
I write you from
my heart of desires
I rejoice safe arrival at Lond & hope that the first meeting is now I trust this return home will
be a great blessing & comfort to you
& as great a satisfaction to Ann & I wish William may be permitted to accompany Ann

May 7. 1814

to Providence as there
 you will receive
 them all together
 which will be such a joy & and
 if your journal
 can only be of
 comfort to all parties
 the King keeps your copy also. and
 your journal at all the moments beyond
 x has in extent to be called up in
 what a number to some to receive the

expressions he would not
 for a few times
 pretend to see him
 the I think you are
 the people however
 it shall be furnished
 in 10 days time
 in answer to your letter but I shall see the Prince as
 he had a journal
 I mean to send that your table will
 be made tender
 for long as it
 will last before
 some the happen

in this world of trials I hope when our journey comes to some I shall be able to tell some in words by the I forgot to say was very kind the same
was very good
& the Rasthays
superior good
