

June 13th 1814

My dear Mr Adams -
 I spoke to Taylor concerning your friend & he will do what he can
 with the few that they
 have for me very much God knows
 I was delighted to
 see Anne & George
 for one moment
 when last we
 were & he gave me the most
 heartfelt
 I ever saw but I
 hate to be standing

was necessary to give me - such a hurry
 as this last fortnight
 nothing was done
 like it - but I hope
 the Emperor & the
 will have England
 pleased with the
 reception they
 have found in the
 the Prince Regent
 has certainly
 done all he could
 to make it
 agreeable - The Emperor is a fine

looking man - but
 the King of Prussia & his family
 are beautiful
 & the King himself
 a fine handsome
 soldier like a
 fine creature -
 his sons delight
 & his Brothers very handsome &
 show as much
 better & superior
 beginning to get
 the better of their

last attack -
 I wish I could have
 done any thing
 for George -
 - even the
 and de Camp but
 the Dr York told
 me it was
 useless speaking
 to the Purveyors
 for it would
 not succeed
 therefore I thought
 it best to say
 nothing - that is what I like

the I suppose of all things in a way
 pleasing and
 unaffected -
 for up to I have never seen to see all
 these great people
 before they leave
 England -
 God bless you
 Adieu
 from the 13
 love to Anne
