

Dec 2 ? (1806)

Walsingham 1805

Dec 2nd 1805

Dec 2

My dear Mr Adams -

I have typed Gully to let me answer your kind letter of enquiry after us all I am happy to assure you not with standing the dreadful accounts we receive daily of the injured state the Continent has fallen into that our adored King loses his health & is most miserably supported under all his

Chas II Duke of Brunswick was proclaimed d. Nov 11 1806 trials which would even be the point of Blyburn; to this country & her family We have had letters from the Dr of Blyburn which gives us the comfort of asuring us her health has not suffered from all she has gone through - Her plans are not decided yet but we all hope she may come to England as the

not
 the
 had and & c
 re
 the
 her
 the
 as
 the
 Sir
 re
 by

char II

Dec 2 ? (1806)

Watermark 1805

only safe place left. — The poor Queen was and had not time get from any one of her family & is miserable as you may suppose —
 The poor Duke of Brunswick death was a great blessing for himself
 as his life would only have been miserable
 I hope you have had much good accounts of George I am very glad

Chas II Duke of Brunswick was born 11 Nov 1706

he is to remain in some long period —
 My give my love to little your daughter —
 I was very much
 to see in the center
 that morning her death
 death — my hand
 to her Adam — gently
 was been performed with the Aluminate in her knees from the
 was been quite dying & has been ^{now} been out of her room for 7 weeks

but
 In
 all
 as & m
 is
 I
 of
 I
 he
 and
 also
 also
 app

chap II

Dec 2 ? (1806)

Wolmar 1805

but I trust you is likely to be well, but we have been all miserable about her as you may suppose — & now Mr. W. de Brunswick is very ill & the poor poor Lady has been quite in Hospital
 I suppose you may have heard of Cook who was a very good
 about Amelia died
 about three months ago — Yours
 W. de

Chas II Duke of Brunswick Wolfenbuttel d. Nov 11 1806

