Departure of the Prof. Wales which has been quite understood as we can not make out of the intention to return - He has resigned Government Park which the Regent has given to the Captain of Gloucester who is delighted with it - His leaving my dear Dolly left her to return to Devon - I hope he may make a long stay but hope when he returns he will not go again - Charlotte is still at Cambridge & I hope will go very soon to the sea side Birthday at Longman's "because her sheets would not consent of her going into society" - but the Prince has received a party of her appearing to know the difficult birthday for it would be impossible of the really full her own consent as she would it would be all my will but do she certainly does not & is acting upon some & tenacious plans she must do what she is over & what is thought her - For her reason that two days ago after a long & unpleasant illness -

My dear Mr Adams I must write you a few lines to day to recall myself to your remembrance & to make a 100 thousand excuse for my long silence In the first place I hope is beginning to be a little better & he certainly has moved out of this land I have better than usual The doctor says he is in perfect health - I was delighted to see Mr & Mrs Daines & Miss Byrnes in St. Louis on the day
narrow I believe Mrs Daines
but she has not come
and I were as well as looking little better as Mr Byrnes - I was quite surprised to see in the papers that William is one of the Commissioners named for to arrange the American business I suppose he is afraid of that is the case I think the journey being the less wants good as to the events that have happened in our journey for the last three months they have passed in fact one after the other & are all of us strange & nature that it does not give me time to look

book work & journals up to down & later & c. & c. my business is nearly done. The last week has surprised and pleased me the great
the unexpected & sudden
