

Sep. 28. 1814

My dear Mrs Adams - Many thanks for your last kind letter, by which I rejoice to find that you expect well soon I wish that nothing was over for both your sakes - I think you will be well found in little girl improved under your care & I wish I should flatter myself she is an announcement to you both - as she was a good little creature when I saw her - I think I may say nothing she had been long now happy in a little letter she has had a bad cold since I wrote last, but I hope it is going off this in and another few week people as it is dependant to keep off cold one day is cold & the next no more - I am put in the measure of having with the very faithful people after 14 years being level together it is a great trouble to see better but I hope she has every sort of happiness as for God is well she has she loves me & I love as to be beloved I am I love my dear husband quite as well as I can any body after 14 years but she is willing to love & answer & I love her

Sep. 28. 1814

I have been very much in better health I expected with her - The day (I understand) is not to be the same until the 14 of next month as according to the laws in that part of Germany her woman was being again until 9 months after her husband's death -
 It is a sad sad subject with us all & I fear will bring in much trouble & distress on us all
 I believe is all the better for my mother she has improved & her general health is better - only think of it Birkbeck having destroyed himself the day before yesterday the death of the King is but to be remembered - the has left 5 lines - I can hardly for a short time - I intend when we meet to I hope for the I to see I am sure she is really attached & I myself - I hope you will come to I hope this winter or at least next Spring I long to see you again Yours truly

John Jay
I hope to see you
I hope to see you

1774