My dear Mrs Adams
 Just one line to my dear mother & me to see how looking so well & in such good spirits I am for half an hour really in comfort & was enchanted I thought dear Mr. & Mrs. Pitt in Saturday on my return for the amount of the fortnight was a traveller but left with the yesterday & to day - Mr. & Mrs. Pitt's guest - I take the Great Giff of all things just believe me would I what my opinion to be determined until I tell you as myself - I assure you never had I been before the want of a blime at coal benoever - I am sure you will be sorry for General Doyle unless Booth (I see Doyle was drowned the other day coming from St. Louis in his brig returning to his ship - he is a dreadful loss to his family and as an officer will be greatly regretted - only Raymond is here on the & letter Stearns I regretted but will love & thank on the all she has given through - I find from only small less of her letter which is a pleasing subject as she has kept her a sound state of health for some time passed my Government has found her only daughter which is a doubtful theme to them it was our sleep of a few days only a complaint in her stomach - the little mother is better & at Brighton gently breathes with thought her very ill when I was in Town but I had a better account of her yesterday - God bless you & take much joy

 from to forward How do you & your family never more of names the other day the presence of happiness & contentment are brought to hand & adapted to perfection I don't know who is in the family now & she is quite an old person indeed
