

June 11th 1807Thursday Night June the 11th

My dear Mrs Adams

I have received a letter to day from our Ad Servant who spoke to you concerning her husband's service at the Queen's House. She is most anxious I should attend & enquire for her & apply for a place they call Lookers at the Wood West India Dock - As I have a most sincere regard for her & she has lived 16 years with us I should but I can refuse troubling you to lay this case before William who perhaps will have the goodness at a proper opportunity to mention it to the Duke of Portland - I feel obliged to trouble the Duke with a letter upon so trifling a subject & have and as I am more enough to please William will plead my cause will & not lead me into asking any thing

That is unwise I know I will write this to you I rely upon this saying every thing I desire upon the subject to the Duke from now
 I enclose you the Paper sent me - I hope I shall not be disappointed in seeing you & seeing Sunday your arrival will be all ready for you Godley says you need drive with the same Sunday & the the says she will not give you up Sunday all the arrangements have been made — It is quite convenient to my time delighted I am with the thoughts of seeing you God bless you & yours

Mary
