 through I have not received your letter
 yet in the subject of George I have not been un mindful
 of your wish any more than of his
 as I speak to the Duke of York and
 G. by her has not
 in the subject to

putting Calverton —
 and I think will show
 what they can be
 at this moment
 the number of applications on my part therefore they can be made in decided persons
 for party to Brighton
 most of my will & will report was
 a useful reader
 the Paris attack of
 that was a great

Paris looks to me but the comfort of seeing them come home
 showing our story
 & he is necessary slowly
 It has been a hard without attack of great & nothing else I suppose you and on the & tending all the reports — but the fact is he is so much on his legs he can not stand
 therefore this year
 at the Home & being

Parliament & directly to each of the quarters of the land & stand
to help and assist
to assist our right
of taking and after such a part of the land. The news papers tell
you well the order of the land is going to be revised and I can say as they are being revised
I am very glad to be in formed
of the order of the land.
