

Mar. 31. 1815

Dear Mother 31 1815

I will write you one line by next time I have put to my what are unexpected pleasure I have had to day in seeing William when I was delighted to see looking so well & gave me pat & we walk some of the spare in hand I never mind times looking so well I find he does not expect I wish as George for a fortnight & that the little girl is to be left with you & I was sorry to find her as well of health but hope I shall be enough sure to be in - The 2^d was open in the hall but as we much worried today that she is going out - I hope has not got on lately at all - The real change in Public affairs & a hundred little worries of our own are constantly drawn back - to her - Her being engaged & married - It is strange to think what a small set of people the French are - and how looking them on down

you are for who
 the
 in

James Arncliffe
James Arncliffe
of London

1815

Mr. Arncliffe
Bristol
London
P. O.
St. Pauls Church
St. Pauls Church

