

1815

June the 29

Any amount I can receive I could not bring myself to write until I was quite certain the real report of your being <sup>lodge</sup> ~~lodge~~ death was true & a copy found from all the private letters it is clearly made out he fell a victim on that our Government's deception not only for England but all the world - we are really deceived as it has been most clearly proved & a sure of tomorrow's land & more sure tomorrow

never betrayed before he was surrounded with the most delicate & deploring the loss of some dear husband Another such as I found turn which may be me letters but tears of our own blood and knowing with the same as we have long been we should remember the affects always of this picture in France is a great suffering & would remind us in some measure for the happiness of less enjoyment — I wish by

and so
 the
 as will be of the
 the
 the
 slow
 by
 will
 will
 the

1815

I must do I feel for you all as I have seen you had seen Edward Dodge & supply to I suppose the matter of as God our opinion - till we intend you leave of the our brother of his wife - of course you have heard that the of papers in which he was very designed themselves & the only of your part should all the more abandoned their office - & that caused the double slaughter of officers in that Regiment after they came to only them & finding they would not attend to them they determined to force accounted for as it has ever been looked upon until that day as the friend required possible I have not time to write you etc

~~Mr. [unclear]
[unclear]
[unclear]
[unclear]
[unclear]~~

[The text in this section is mirrored bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper and is largely illegible.]