June the 30 -

My dear Mr. Adams

I was just going to write to you when I received your letter to express my joy at hearing from you yesterday that Edward Kelly after all was alive / rescued / but don't worry - Taylor who has been all anxiety about him & made my private enquiry you are thus delighted with intelligence look bright & fine they heard of I congratulate you on your fortune & wish all his wife the sort of uncontaminated people are in from his retirements being more so really gratified at his return and the Army consequently was forced to be immediately cut down besides the loss incurred for the retirements to be made and the effects of this retiring appears to be more injurious in France & all the accounts are very satisfactory you will see by the newspapers my dear brother and others that the of France is in England but I don't know how the business will turn out the L & S of the will before we go The L has no objection to see them but he refuses to see them which I cannot understand which the husband in have take up the guard for the difficulties — as a strong justification in favor of the L's conduct you may blame him in reversing this unfortunate discovery which was & was unhappy that is to be regretted to refer to me one of her own family but she would not help up the respectability of her own conduct if she did not attend in that subject just say you will be a word from me on this subject
