

July 2. 1807

My dear Mr Adams

I hasten to send you the enclosed letter I received last night from Innes & then explain every thing in the subject of your Brother or make better than I can that I think you had better read it on to view & then I beg you will have it — I was afraid your Wife Julia's death would prevent Anna's recovery, but I hope

The next letter I receive from you will bring me a good account I am better but not strong
My health is nearly gone & the physician believes my mind has to little Daughters & believe me

Yours
D. Kelly
