My dear Mr Adams - Many thanks for your kind letter just received I am ill but not quite off the sick bed yet but I am very anxious to get me well soon - I am under much necessity of Mr Dally, Boy who had my appearance of Drury when he wrote and or your reference in his hand that they found was written - He writes truly astonished & I have from all I have said at all will know - Thank God Hely & Augustin are both well - Augustin goes to Brighton next week - I should be delighted if you was in London see you very partly it would do us good but it is always a unpleasant to talk to those who are knowing or interested

I am, Sir, I thank you much for the trouble you have taken to send me the Journal of the Academy of the Sciences and Arts of the City of Paris, which I have just received, and which I find to be very interesting and useful.
 I am, Sir, very respectfully,
 Your obedient servant,
 J. G.
