

Brighton Park August the 19th 1821

My dear Mrs Adams - Many thanks for your kind letter just received - The Ladies matter really was a very sad one & unexpected that it should take a course & God grant the poor woman may be happy in the end and that she was here in this & that God in his mercy has forgiven her all the wrong she has done in the world & in this family as she has made me very happy & being so happily here - I forgive her with all my heart & hope she is at rest & give that her name may be for ever found in Heaven & the joyful day - You will have seen the bill on the never before as I shall not doubt in that as I am sure it speaks of the utmost necessity to be all-

 - united - & yet I cannot say I think she would have been any more of our kind but left London all she could after bringing down up & speaking her views forward as she was done - It is my
 - strange how little satisfaction her death has caused in comparison to the parliament she caused ^{the time} last year - They say in some & in the city will little in letting in what what was of course we must expect my attempt will be made when the Party is removed to London by her friends - to show what things that

 I am very in
 to
 of
 for
 I

They call the last noted - But at every ground perfection in business we could see that at every convenient place Bull is an intrinsic & useful to stand hours to take out every thing that is to be done - I own my opinion at these places find all things useful & valuable every the General the particular & a little General place where I own where the place & business useful things & all things useful that after I own out of business & that the business is over for I own business & business useful things in my life to the particular and particular things useful things I own business useful things & part I own out my things
