

Watermark 1821

Ball at Bunsley Wm. U. Lady C. H. Grove in affliction

July 19 1821

My dear Mrs Adams -

Many thanks for your kind letter by which I rejoice you are all well & happy enjoying the 11 (the 11th) at home - I returned from Bunsley on Sunday after having passed there my agreeable long the Ball went off to perfection I remain some 20 minutes dancing in dancing & will keep up nothing but the night school & will about a hundred & fifty people - Poor Mother though has been ill ever since the heat on course now & brought in the summer

& I left him for from with to day the accounts are settled I went to the Review Sunday with the ^{of} ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~Review~~ - The men were tremendous & sport to the sight & since my return know it was very impossible hardly to get out of the house - July being day for & Prof. Head on with me & they came on Sunday when I went to the ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~Review~~ & the Dinner - He did it himself came on & made me a visit this Sunday after I came to the house about ~~the~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~Review~~ & ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~Review~~ me

 these
 the
 says
 after
 B
 for

me
 on se
 in fu
 on
 ag
 de
 a

Wainmark 1821

we must be out with our these houses & was all affor-he looked well, but all on his legs - but must be gone and Assembly & some time at night Ball & some text that must for it & they say he is to give a breakfast at the Cottage
 some day some which I wish we hope he may come our some day again to see me - His place is in bright beauty & the garden full of fine flowers - the more less a small stream a good deal - I have good accounts from my father about - & I hope by this time but I shall give preference of it to reply in quite well you have kind love to your children & believe me your M

Mr Adams
Boston
Mass
I trust
I shall have

50
MADISON

That Adolphus & his family have joined Eliza - I have told her in -counts of your lady (Walden) she is in great affection but unsuccessfully suspected - she always always talks of coming to England