My dear Mr Adams - Your kind letter of this morning I venture to thank you for to day - and to assure you I was glad to hear when I wrote last night I was sure you would write - but I was not happy yesterday when you were not with me I shall be much pleas'd I have for the matter, when you are in the business is quite settled, future made a great part about 10 days ago which began with the storm in the night but the whole was accomplish'd for I really was very much pleas'd to see & have had no return of storm for some days - & the plan of it has just now in my hands - I have been out in my garden the last few days & now all the letters for it & yesterday went to Penryn to see Foley & send it to Penryn - I thought that Henry with me and she will remain with me until after James day which is a great comfort to me - but I am of late I thought very look with the me - I don't expect the Duke home before the day - I go to find some around in my mind and I find my & Henry God also very well - It always happens that children ^{often} come into families that are now there than

I have
