

Mar. 14

water mark 1822

Gloucester House
 Newcastle 14
 My dear Mr Adams

I hope you are much better & quite but you cough I really am much worried since I came to Lewis Stronger & left the 1st, but still cannot see & know steam - I spent most days & have nearly got into all very usual ways for my walking up & down stairs - The or much better - The Duke of York quite well - He is offered to repair by the same road has taken Cambridge House for two years of the Dec or early March - The flames have England the 21 - & will not return before Oct^r - I expect them in June to summer August comes up to Day for the winter - The Duke of Cumberland was here very the 1st was better when she wrote - but she does not appear to be very gay & and she has been several many agreeable things of the upon also

 also not
 Dec
 see
 see
 to
 to also for
 to the so

Mar. 14

water mark 1822

of late it has cost a hundred upon every body - I started death started us all dreadfully also the dreadful burning at Boston - Sir James Boscawen's death withy came just a step to the Doom - I have the in quantity to lay in upon - I have not seen William since I came to town he was as good as to call but I was not allowed to see any body there just 10 days after I came to town - I hope you will tell him to call soon again - Love to your Mother & Mary -

