My dear Mr Adams -

I had the happiness of my dear Augusta on Sunday looking particularly well - she is remaining in town to get her share in the stock good ready for the winter & then will go to France I hope in less - to keep some time with her - I wish you could see her again The year good minutes of my father & also of Caldwell - dear them on all happy in their separate ways & her enjoyed myself of all things having been absent from England - I passed all Wednesday evening with the King at Windsor (till he looked well & appeared quite comfortable in the room above Lewis's old apartment - It gave me a very warm & good night as the rest of the passed days were deep snow in spite of all I could do but I hope he did not then as there was to be one fulling & that is joy at his leaving in the letter - I have at last very almost persuaded myself that my lady (Melrose) as her health is now so bad that if she could ever come to England she never would bother to do any duty as I found it impossible to go on any longer & truly many further bad attacks I thought was accepted the situation & I hope the service may be a good one - it is always her regret to make any change - & the whole has been my promptitude to my feeling having been (unable as usually to The Duke was taken down the Castle for two years on account of the shooting but finding enough at P.P. - He takes papers of the place in Sept next I can only wish for his comfort & amusement & hope it will increase all his reputations & make God bless you off love to your children - I have heard nothing of Miss Anne since but I hope she will not pass King Don without calling in upon me & your
