

April 2. 1823.

Gloucester House
April 2 —
1823

My dear Mr Adams

I thank you for your last kind letter & hope you have had good success. I begin to think Mr has found all his children quite well I am at the last of the sick lots & walked out for the first time yesterday and was engaged to walk
I have not seen your William yet & has been
which makes me fear
that James yet is still small - indeed is quite empty for the time of year all the world goes to Brighton - I know the H. is quite well and of York is in a way at the Carlton until Saturday & on various large party people remain in health in & about town - they had been a few days ago July August. Bright moon

 set yesterday the evening will enjoy of her making is so quiet they fear
 much for her again

as
 still
 but in
 my
 in
 I
 7
 in
 to
 &

April 2. 1823

As to your lady (Belange) she still writes and she is coming but I doubt much he will ever be able to show his face again in England - There is much to be feared - I hope is much better &
 able to get into
 of a journey &
 enjoy himself
 more than

I have seen her eyes - He
 of not meet day together which is a great pleasure to me - I have to write to
 I believe you have Obedient

1823

April 2

John Adams

Washington

myself

Mr

Adams

James Lane

