April 13th 1822

My dear Gen Adams - I am very sorry for your most kind letter & for all you say about my health - I really really hope will not understand this and will write another - The Duke has been confined all this week with the influenza & Quillia, when attended some way he has had the symptoms of most people, but the Duke has been obliged to keep his bed two days & has had much pain I hope the it is now getting well as they were announced in Drawing Room & here for the 21 & 23 - I had the pleasure of seeing William & his son names the morning up. — They are little from Gill but not as handsome as they ought to have been coming from such a situation. The eldest looks as if she was still delicate however. They had seen to the play the night before & enjoyed it much. I am glad that you have good accounts of Maria — I shall see her soon. George
