

Jan 18. 1823

W. M. 1821

B. P. Jan 18 -

Prudent Mr. Adams Your last kind letter has filled me with anxiety about our business I believe God will be your ally & that this evil matter shall not bring me into you are most kind in all your way of me - I have begun a new place within the last few days which I hope will be of use in keeping of them I know - they are my treasure to them who are
 would me & not my right to myself - but when off I have no my equal in any business beyond

x Mary Cousins of Macclesfield d. Jan 1. 1823.

some of I shall be glad to be in some of them in many cases not me
 We go the 11 of July for the winter on the 27 of July we go to Bedford & then to Bedford & return to Bedford the 1st — This first journey was heavy very heavy from Windsor God thank God is getting out of this fit of the great may will I had a good account of leaves but incomplete — only Indians at Stonington both looked very much at
in the best copy of some and Domestic travelling — from at Stonington is in a dearful state of great — only some fields with things expected but very much

the paper
 is of the same
 of
 the
 as
 the
 at
 you
 the very
 the
 our

x Mary Con...

Jan 18. 1823

W.M. 1821

... as
... me
... the
... Dix
... to
... me
... me
... ut
... all
... but
... as
... it
... l.
... hope
... of
... with
... much

... sufferings ... great threat ... it was a
... happy ... for himself - ...
... opening ... his ... Parliament
... they hope ... will succeed
... at ... with his ...
... but ... the
... as the ...
... there
... thought
... a ...
... of the
... the ...
... at ...
... gratified ...
... the ...
... very ...
... children - I hope you ...
... out the ...

x Mary Cousins of Macclesfield d. Jan 1. 1823.

*The young lady - Mrs. ...
from ... the ...
... it all ...*

Jan 24

WAGSHOT
[59]

*Open ...
...
...
...*

*...
...
...*