

FF [1824] Mrs Threlkiff alive in (278)

Feb. 27

W.M. 1823

Bayly's Park Feb 27

My dear Mr Adams

Many thanks for your kind letter received this evening by which I receive Williams's & see how you want to know of his prospects in life as well as Williams Pitt does - I shall try Williams to bring her they to me some days after I get to Dover - As yet there are I suppose & I shall not be sorry to go to London as most of my friends are there, & the weather is uncertain I get out very little - My accounts of Dolly letter, but still we have spent hours - She also letter only words of my but telling you that my love and affection

Sumner reminded this life on the 22 of Jan 17 - it was at last a paper where we have expressed the last words of her life I can tell was awful - I have explained her in your eyes I strongly on awful and in the state of health I am in she will be a great comfort to me and will
in our home like her
I am sure you will

h. p.
 for her
 I am

FF
[1824] Mrs Turreliffe
alive in (278)

Feb. 27

W.M. 1823

to glad to hear the news with me for good will - I am used you have no idea of coming to
I am this year - but to
I am in the same way

Yours
Dudley

[Faint, illegible handwriting]

[Faint, illegible handwriting]

[Faint, illegible handwriting on the left edge]

BAKERSHOTT
1809

Mr. Adams /
Baltimore
Dear Mr. Adams
P.S. - I am here

Feb. 27

Albany