

July 29. 1824

July 29 -

BP

Many thanks for your kind letter about the volume - You will not be more pleased with having with me than I am to hear you would buy it - I rejoice you got to your journey and will I find pleasure still at Hyderabad in your health - I must be in hopes of seeing you again in the course of the year at BP - The Crown is safe & we are to have it at home in very thanks for it - You shall it surely

You (many) say, though you have been right this time about this matter, it is not proof you may be so on other - as your left side - in such a manner I your name is decided on - concerning this thing he has been obliged to fill up the situation - but many times he had refused I am delighted you like her - Augustus is with me so I can tell the

 Dr
 his
 the

July 29. 1824

In case as I am going out Dinner in my Club - to the pleasure of the club and staff

Yours
Paddy

Partial view of another document on the left edge, showing handwritten text in cursive script.

4281

Handwritten cursive text, possibly a signature or address, with some ink smudges.

3/10

2

