Brighton Dec 17th
 I am ever dear Mr. Adams I am extremely glad to hear that I have been in the opinion in the House & with a few in my hand writing to all my friends & that must please my excellent for having been had a correspondence - I was delighted to see William & sincerely hope that I may succeed in getting this far into the office and lay in an office - I am glad that certainly alone me a great deal of good as far as strength goes as I can walk more often in longer time together than I have done ages - I have been pained with a great irritation in my skin which I believe has relaxed the constitutions; but it has had a real plague - & requires care & attention - I have this week Sunday to go home - & the day after report the Duke - You may have read the account that happened at St. James - for some days I was under much anxiety, but thanks God, I am well again. My eyes are quite well now - & in some respects I thankfull. It was some more in the Old way - but the nature is a happy one & I expect to have of God a Harvest following me very soon - The account of your journey to day and my best wishes I am expressing myself for to know of her death - your friend
