

Mar. 10. 1827

things the old motto of the last week has brought us some little degree of it. But perhaps still shows the state of affairs in a very unkind & unbecoming & the more we are to be feared as it will cause some much unduly - but it is better than general doubt
 as well as the company - The protestant cause
 was carried on the
 a small quantity
 after the night
 debate - & the dependent question was pending upon the public mind which much surprise & anxiety
 G. M. M.
 4th March 10 - 1827

our last account from the letter from your friend was...
was saying with an expression in the subject of the paper & I to say his eyes - our account was

London
Bristol
Birmingham
Manchester

London Manchester 1849

M. J. Clarke
Bristol

John. Clarke
William. Clarke
George

