

May 20. 1827

My dear Mrs Adams -
I was delighted to see your Mother looking so well & I was quite surprised to find that William was so
immediately able
to permit his Sister - Sister Anne
to accompany Mary
just before she left England in August

May 20. 1827

spirits - I really have not much of late
 as I never had better
 reason to say -
 The Government will have informed you
 how obscure Politis
 are some length
party names, it is impossible to enter into it all in a
letter, but it is all

seems & I think the D of P. & the other & prospects present
 have not yet
 you - they could not have acted
otherwise - They
 about John is actually coming
 in respect to of
 the 6 or 7 of next month for 3 months
 she just is to be at

St James's Palace
17 June 1791
I wish it could
tempt you to come
towards London
but I fear the way to the
for you - I would
wonder how it
with all this
but the most important
can venture to
- the

May 20

thought into the thought of my new summer part in
 my own - here to
 know - Geo W. Adams
 5th
 May 20

Dear Sir
I have the honor
to receive your letter of the 10th inst.

London May 10th 1790

Mr Adams

London

William Frederick Adams

