

Aug. 29, 1827

~~My dear Mr. Adams~~
 I was quite delighted about your letter & I am very sure William is quite happy it was shown in his journal the place being in the list of references. I was also very glad to see your dear grand mother enter as if she was much pleased with the same. I hope your kind letters will be as usual & I but to see more of you the day you are at Windsor, putting in to more comfortable than your arrangements referred day - I hope when I come to see to be more fortunate I shall be at Brighton & there in the little you on the 29 of 14. I should remain 10 days with you or I hope in the 20 you will come with friends to see me - Mr. Jennings death was an awful event which is to be end of all good times - That paper will which is all I ever want about a

that had then
 good
 me
 her 13/7
 Aug
 1
 the 15/7
 7
 the Method of Pollington at the head of the Army should think all will depend small thinking people cannot suppose of - how to know of Pollington

137
August 24 -
Gor
Macy

The 2 of September is to be in June the 22
of July - I have long the 9 or 10 of last year
