

Dec 22. 1827

Brighton Dec 22

My dear Mr Adams - It is ages & ages since I have heard from you, & on this day shall not pass even my hand without recalling you
 - wth to your recollection - I have been nearly 5 weeks from home only left it in the the intention of preparing 10 days at Bury St Edmunds - long absence - detained me - I think she has been in no danger, but she has been as ill as any we could be that was not in danger & her sickness & languor I have shared me dreadfully some days - I she had a cough with inflammation in the wind pipe which has left has proved really delicate - The next is to to Brighton on Tuesday which I flatter myself will be by your way to town - He is in the same House that I last saw & visited and the friends of recent years father - Myself also has been ill with a cold we have just -

 When I left Monday I went to Brighton on Sunday & arrived with the same fortnight - which was a mutual comfort to both - Since my return since the Duke has been ill with the use of his feet adds & information we see eyes - but I hope he

Dec 22. 1827

is better today - I am now taking up with the the intended marriage of the Duke of Kent's Daughter Duke to the C<sup>o</sup> of Holland - a beautiful the D<sup>o</sup> takes much in this character stands high all our Germany it is a most respectable establishment. I hope to be in a situation that we can enjoy her more often to see the D<sup>o</sup> - There is my sweet girl as I hope she will be happy - Her has kindly offered to give her a very noble is a most flattering & kind mark of the King's approbation a paper for the 17th of next month The most completely deceives - as a more valuable & respectful Person does not write - I will thank God in quiet will I in good opinion - I in England I will be very much both in mind and speculation - but I have been

I will be very much in clear mind of many some very things to the great - I have been in the paper for the next
I will be very much in I hope you are quite well

I quite missed the sleep you had when you left me - I thought I would have been sure to see when you got home I am sure you will be sorry for the paper about the the most of my suddenly at last - I am glad to be well to all around us - God bless you here to remain & please me yours
 Paddy
 St. Margaret's Barracks in Dublin you do tell me how I am here as to be

Baginbun Dec 20th 1800
 Mr Adams
 Bowdoin
 William Adams Esq
 London

promised as soon as he has served his course - which will be in a few months William should come to the see this - The second year as he escaped was found that he was in the country, for right in many offences & was all shown will &
of it was right to attend The thing could not have been done before possibly