19/ Jan 1828

I am not aware of the presence in Domestic any one of your names in either your year I am sure I requested himself in knowledge of the offering of any considerable as I am sure you will be inclined to at the Glorious Victory the Particulars Annals

My noble notes to me all the particulars I have
with your ground I see I take - knowing I see interested in all these concerns your family
as well as as before

The important subject brought before that nob. resolves your ground I see Tatons & in which we appear

W.M. 1828

To have distinguished himself in a rank & position of distinction - I feel much obliged to you for your kind recommendation - I it is impossible for me to let the fact go with out just sending you three few lines - I pray
 my all that is kind to remain upon that occasion - Yours truly
 Wm. M.
