

Feb. 21. 1829

Gt. St. 721

My dear Mr. Adams — Many thanks for your last kind letter — I am happy to say I have replied yesterday & she is going on towards recovery — I hope now her inflammation will return — Her good eye keeps well — We came to Limerick Monday — I have been suffering with my feet but they are better — As to all going on there is no meeting upon it — Party men were talking of the parliament as powerful to interpose — We must be God in his Mercy will protect us well through this most important & useful moment You will see by the papers sent or come & be near and a word of any thing will be got to Hand you very far of our suspense & our affairs in the King may stand to take our opinion in the same as our time the last 30 years - All things to call upon our God and Mercy

Feb. 21. 1829

Handwritten text on the left edge of the page, partially cut off.

Dear Sir

Main body of the letter, consisting of several paragraphs of handwritten text, mostly illegible due to fading and bleed-through.

1829

Mr Anderson
Bristol return to Mr
Anderson

