April the 26th 1829

My dear Mr Adams
 In your kind Wth resolution of the 25th Apr^l all your good wishes upon the day — as I gave order ^{Mr} in yesterday as to the freight day it was to be, as the Company took to the number & stand on your part and usually to enter so normally into the day cost a particular & in spite of all the trifling

 who ^{also} still left & were joyful the day - I was not. For while a day had numbered time: happy days of our joys & when we will return again
 I was delighted to see William looking so well this day ago - I was sorry to learn from home you had not been quite well of late - This matter

Apr. 26, 1829

in regard any body & I think of much sleep - William has been unwell with a swelling in his neck which I fear is getting worse & until it subsides he must suffer much pain - I have your account of him & hope she you are about to order to make ~~adoption~~ a visit which I am sure will do her more good than any thing - after much

My dear you
Daughter & Helen
Yours affectionately
