My dear Mr. Adams — What you have now in the paper, concerning our manuscript in ~~itself~~ <sup>it</sup> is ~~too~~ <sup>too</sup> ~~time~~ <sup>time</sup> a ~~fatal~~ <sup>fatal</sup> is naturally found in the Royal egg — She has kept it a second for a long time to avoid ~~young~~ young her ~~penalty~~ & found ~~them~~ them a cold time ~~wanted~~ <sup>wanted</sup> the ~~fatal~~ — but she has been ~~expiring~~ <sup>expiring</sup> these ~~useless~~ estancy for a long time.

Alexander 2d of K. Nether thinks this eye has lost of much little use to him. for sixty years he had in fact she will not miss it much as it only confined her sight the left eye or perfectly and, a long, & free of all affliction which is a great consolation & they do much more for her.

You are as anxious for my opinion - only not to attempt you much at length - the less had I mentioned in the first copy, but the same letter of it the reader to talk on this subject in so few words while this subject of importance - about
I think my opinion as to all that is going on very short notice I know I am still in ~~Answered to your~~ Campbell & satisfying the small expense - May God in his mercy protect ~~us~~ us from ~~the~~ ~~time~~ of danger - Yrs affec son
