Tuesday July the 11th

My dear Mr Adams —

It gave me great pleasure to find by your letter that George's marriage meets with your & his father's approbation & most sincerely do I hope it will turn out to the comfort & satisfaction of all.

Parties — I have always proud to tell you I had the pleasure of seeing your brother the <sup>10th</sup> of the morning before the king's birthday & he made me very happy by saying he loved his present situation much I have almost every day from dear Gouilly she writes and out of spirits & I have been ruffled & doubtfully in training us that at her time of life the change of thirty four years constant constant habits & more training have led to the trouble of insomnia & etc and of depression depression with the time every day & until she gets into her house which can not be before Sep<sup>r</sup> of is

 the
 for a
 her

 for
 who can do
 she
 be
 that of so soon she could not feel the extent of all her misery for as long as she is remaining her arrangements & remaining she has been more comfortable it helps up her spirits & turns her thoughts

from painful ideas
I never say dear Providence which are all things considered guilty could do no other wise than she has done & that can be her only comfort in this painful business and the more I think on it very I feel more

least banking to my feelings It was necessary & unobtainable as I know she is blind and the only chance she had of any comfort was taking the step she has done — I understand her House is very small but in a very good part of the Town as it is in Hill Street We have had great & good change this last year in our House and do not find it as ever the better for any changes & the being rented from it & a truly valuable affair

as by and by I have been here to see ~~in~~ <sup>is</sup> a great pleasure to me I thank God for all well just now I receive news our beloved Mr. Tottenham is dead & greatly missed by the best friends and of the sea world which appears to continue throughout that family
 I am quite happy they have got the French fleet - but to your daughter & when you see your wife of your daughter's company is with you you see very but I never expect to see the original Computations Computations and I suppose the intended return under the Protection of a <sup>dearly beloved</sup> ~~dearly beloved~~ ~~Book~~ I suppose & that I never will see the example I speak of you of God written to Computations Computations find I could very well see all this with my eye

 I suppose now I need not write Computations now or what dear

& I
