My dear Mr. Adams -

I write just to wish you joy that your Brother Mr. Ad^r is arrived & hope in good health & to enquire if you have had any letters from George & of your love from Mr & Mrs. W. are going on - I had my usual wish to read Mr. Adams a present by the next post that is going and very anxious are by return of post if I were still in town & staying on all next week

of your presence as the
 you can send it good — I receive not very good accounts of your health she is poor poor well & moved to death about a Queen as she can read find some she likes — she has never been well of since this summer I had & all your well
 well on her here
 rather good than usual lately then you as a party at her cottage & the L gave

was
 Det
 you
 read
 I'm

is quite a charming note of long since I hope you have to be remember me kindly to your children & believe me

Yours affectionately
 Mary
