 about the 28

Saturday April the 28
[1810]

My dear Mrs Adams - As you will most likely miss my letter which I wrote last night by leaving it off Sunday before the Post comes in I write again by to night's post to Bowdler to be sure you get this without loss of time - The King & Queen desire me to return your many thanks for your kindness and readiness in coming to our apartment and we shall expect you at latest on Monday the 10th which I hope will not be any inconvenience & however my note to me if it is & I will try to make more arrangement with the Galleries to stay till you ever come -

The Play was been here on the 1st & do not find any more than last week — how to know who I hope I shall see as she will be so near London & you shall you being here with you for if you do I will continue to have her lodged perhaps it may be more convenient than your mind by London & London that you must do as you please —
Yours
Mary
