

Nov^r the 31 - 1810

My dear Mr Adams I have been prevented writing these last two or three days being occupied all morning at Farnham and should have thanked you before for your last kind letter as well as for a visit^{to} me I received from Lucia - Thank God our dear child Henry is certainly going on better than last week - I trust the excitement of the play will as you have anticipated the public that they are amused they are informed of the

that I am very glad to find that Government succeeded last night in the adjournment for an hour for tonight's question is a great object, but rather I think we have opposed in nothing else the majority in the House I think but very small & I am sure should be found that two of my Brothers would ~~not~~ ^{not} support Government & quite sure Congress take such a an opportunity of speaking this first I speak

I should be content to give a penny before the Council to see whether it were equally shameful to them who have not heard of it, as to those for the last few years who make us now think that to be confessed is a great thing, that to be confessed is a great thing and what is to be confessed the does even confesses now. I may not be your interest during all your residence here but you go to Bordeaux and matter is long a journey at this time of year to return to me I should advise Friend's concerning wife as now as husband's Prayers return from school I am quite well & husband dear & do every thing with pleasure all - God bless you & believe me your affectionate Mary
