My dear Mr Andrews I am delighted at the thought of seeing you Wednesday when I hope you will come in to my room - I am already at the to see the day when is truly sorry to hear an independent an account of Mr Andrews but he still desires to be of use to him I shall try & see Practice to day & make some arrangements that you are to be at London in few days & in giving me certainly letter

I enclose you a letter for William his letter amused us all not a little - I am really my much letter

Yours truly
John Murray
